

Minerve Silver Salad Set: Spindle-shaped, Pan-sided, Louis XVI-style, Unmonogrammed

140 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Beautiful silver-plated salad set, featuring a rich design with tapered, flared handles, guilloché and foliage decoration in the Louis XVI style, dating from the late 19th century, circa 1890-1900. The handles bear the "Massif Minerve 1er Titre" silver hallmark and are free of any monograms. In perfect condition; the ivory-colored salad forks and spoons have retained their bright white color. Comes in its original storage case. Length: 28 cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000