Description

A large and rare Art Deco lamp in polychrome ceramic, hand-decorated, created by the Austrian sculptor and ceramicist Rudolph Podany (1879-1963) for KWK KERAMOS (Keramos Wiener Kunstkeramik), one of Vienna's most important manufacturers of artistic ceramics. The centerpiece of the composition depicts a Pierrot holding up the umbrella-shaped lamp, flanked by two elegant female figures embracing him. The composition, with its striking visual impact, is characterized by a refined Art Deco style and vibrant polychrome decoration. Under the base: the KWK KERAMOS AUSTRIA mark and other old antique labels. Signed by the artist Podany, engraved in the clay beneath the glass shade. Austria, 1920s/1930s. Condition: very good, with a few small chips (see photos); marks and wear
