Description

A beautiful oil on canvas signed by André Crochepierre, depicting an elegant woman seated in a bourgeois interior, holding a fan. The painter plays with soft light that illuminates her face, hands, and light-colored shawl, contrasting with the deep reds and browns of the setting.A renowned portraitist and painter of intimate scenes, André Crochepierre (Villeneuve-sur-Lot, 1860-1937) was a regular exhibitor at the Salon des Artistes Français. This work offers a fine example of his sensitive and warm style, attentive to the model's personality as much as to the atmosphere of her interior.
