

Baccarat Vase Featuring The Mythical Dragon Graouilly

2 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Crystal

Height : 28cm

Description

A rare Baccarat crystal vase adorned with motifs inspired by traditional Lorraine folktales: thistles, the region's emblem; the Graouilly, the famous dragon from 19th-century Metz legends; as well as hazel branches and insects. In Lorraine folklore, the hazel tree and magical hazelnuts are recurring elements associated with dragons and used to ward off evil creatures. The engraving is exquisitely refined and rich in detail. The vase rests on a bronze base marked "Baccarat." Height: 28 cm
