

Chéri Desprin Kerosene Lamp For Sewing Machines, Patented Sgdg--france--late 19th Century, Circa

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Height : 57

Description

Chéri Desprin Oil Lamp, designed for illuminating sewing machines, in black-painted metal decorated with gilt scrollwork, with brass and glass elements. It bears the inscription "Chéri Desprin - Breveté S.G.D.G." and a serial number "19820". The lamp is fitted with an adjustable clamp-type mounting system, allowing it to be securely attached directly to a sewing machine or to a desk. It also features a small control lever on the body of the lamp: turning it to the right releases the fabric, while turning it to the left extinguishes the flame. The lamp has been tested and is still fully functional. A beautiful and rare object dating from the late 19th century, both decorative and a testament to the ingenuity of lighting systems associated with the world of sewing machines. Condition: wear consistent with

Dealer

Galerie NAKKAYA

Art - Antiquités - Objets de Collection - Trésors oubliés

Mobile : +33 6 26 73 09 29

Clamart 92140

age and use to the black paint and gilt decoration, with some marks on the metal partsOriginal glass shade, in very good condition, with no cracks or chipsTotal height: 57 cm including the glassPeriod: Late 19th century, circa 1900-Careful shipping with tracked package within 24-48 hours - In-store pickup available in the Paris region- Payment methods: Credit card, bank transfer, or PayPal