Tenmoku-style Glazed Stoneware Bowl. Made In A French Workshop Around 1960.

230 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sandstone

Diameter : 10 cm

Height : 7,6 cm

Description

A hand-thrown stoneware bowl featuring a stunning glaze with firing effects in shades of brown, black, and ochre.This ceramic piece features deep black runs and metallic brown hues on a wide, crackled ivory-colored palette, accented by a vibrant reddish-brown border.The interior design, resulting from the natural reactions of the glazes during firing, evokes the Taoist symbol of Yin and Yang, giving this piece a remarkable graphic and contemplative presence with a beautiful firing effect that produces a Tenmoku-style glaze.The bowl rests on a circular unglazed foot and bears a workshop mark incised beneath the base.No definitive attribution can be made, but the quality of the glazes suggests a French workshop production from the second half of the 20th century and is reminiscent of certain

Dealer

ARTENKO
19th and 20th-Century Decorative Arts
Mobile : 0770489176

58 rue monceau
Paris 75008

pieces from La Puysaye or La Borne.Height 7.6 cm, diameter 10 cm, 240 g.This item is in perfect condition.Secure packaging and fast shipping with insurance and tracking.