Description

A rare, beautiful, and generously sized Asian-style bowl with a fluted neck, featuring a delicate painted decoration of abstract floral and bird motifs in blue, red, and gold on a white background; the rich and delicate decoration of this piece captivates with its finesse and quality, in the purest early 19th-century Imari style; this piece, in perfect original condition, features a lovely blackened wooden base that enhances its beauty. A highly elegant curiosity--this refined collector's piece, preserved from the passage of time, is for the discerning connoisseur of curiosities.
