Description

- Oil on canvas. Original canvas. Hand-signed. Studio label with title on the back.- Abel Leblanc (1919-2019) embodied the figure of the well-rounded 20th-century French artist, demonstrating a multidisciplinary talent that encompassed painting, sculpture, poetry, and musical composition. Trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lille, he stood out for his profound sensitivity to landscapes and his lyrical mastery of color; the light of northern France and his travels in the Mediterranean are reflected in his works through vibrant canvases featuring brushstrokes that are both expressive and structured. Beyond his studio work, Leblanc nurtured a constant commitment to humanism and education, making him a major cultural figure in the Hauts-de-France region. He leaves
