Description

? HISTORY & DESIGN Pair of living room armchairs, "Cone Chair" model, designed by Verner Panton and produced by Vitra. Originally designed in 1958, this model is a manifesto of radical design and Pop art aesthetics. The seat takes the form of an inverted cone that flares out to form the backrest and armrests, resting in balance on an elegant cross-shaped stainless steel base. The pair shown features a striking bright red fabric upholstery. Includes the Vitra manufacturer's label.
