Description

Vintage Italian lounge chair from the 1960s--probably by Marco Zanuso, red leather
An iconic Italian lounge chair from the 1960s, originally from Milan and likely designed by the renowned Marco Zanuso. This vintage designer chair stands out for its elegant red leather upholstery and white wool cushion, all resting on tapered brass legs. Its timeless design subtly evokes Arne Jacobsen's famous "Egg" chair (1958), combining Italian craftsmanship with mid-century aesthetics. A true showpiece, this unique armchair blends harmoniously into modern, industrial, classic, or eclectic interiors, instantly adding character and luxury to any space. Ideal for lovers of vintage Italian furniture and mid-century design. The armchair shows slight signs of wear consistent with its
