Description

Cushion crafted in the Galerie Lissier workshop from fragments of antique tapestries. An exceptional cushion -- Galerie Lissier Workshop. Each cushion is a unique creation, crafted in our workshop from fragments of antique tapestries dating from the 16th to the 19th centuries, drawn in particular from the great traditions of Aubusson, Brussels, and Flanders. Selected for the beauty of their designs, the richness of their colors, and the uniqueness of their patina, these fragments are carefully incorporated into a contemporary composition that gives them a new lease on life. Entirely handcrafted in our workshop, each cushion combines the elegance of antique tapestry with high-quality fabrics and meticulous finishes. The sewing and assembly are carried out with care to preserve the character and
