

Two-door Cabinet, Louis XV Style, Stripped Wood, 19th Century

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Oak

Width : 155

Height : 218

Depth : 59

Description

Oak cabinet with two molded doors carved with vine tendrils, a scalloped lower rail, curved legs, an upper rail carved with small flowers and heart-shaped motifs, and a flat cornice also carved with repeating motifs...Interior fitted as a wardrobe. Brass hardware; regional craftsmanship from the Deux-Sèvres department. 19th century Standard restoration and maintenance work, including small parts and repairs to the legs. Recently refinished in natural wood.

Dealer

Antiquités Dijeu

Mobilier régional et objets décoratifs anciens

Mobile : 0607660125

12 route de Paris

Les Billaux 33500