Description

Tapestry from the Aubusson Manufactory -- 19th century In keeping with tradition, this magnificent tapestry has undergone a thorough cleaning and meticulous inspection by our experts at the Galerie Lissier artisan workshop. It is now ready to adorn your home A superb 19th-century tapestry, directly inspired by the gallant and pastoral scenes of the 18th century (in the style of François Boucher and Jean-Antoine Watteau). Description of the Work The scene takes place in an idyllic garden featuring architectural elements inspired by antiquity. In the foreground, elegant figures lounge by the water's edge: a young woman in a bright pink draped gown leafs through a book, accompanied by musicians playing stringed instruments. The background reveals a lush landscape featuring a fountain
