Description

Vintage chest of drawers from the 1950s-1960s, featuring a functional and refined design. Crafted from wood with exotic wood veneer, the piece features open drawers and a central open compartment, ideal for displaying decorative items or books. The back-enameled glass shelves add a touch of elegance and brightness, while the brass legs and handles provide a precious and sophisticated detail. This piece has been perfectly restored, maintaining its very good condition, and represents a distinctive example of the style and craftsmanship of the period. MOMOMO0324700
