Description

Mauboussin ring from the "Tellement subtile pour toi" collection. A striking 18k white gold ring (750 parts per thousand), featuring a troid-shaped (rectangular) aquamarine at its center, surrounded by 58 blue sapphires and amethysts. This is one of the freshest color combinations and most geometric designs in this collection. It looks absolutely stunning on the hand. A precious detail: the three main prongs holding the central aquamarine are subtly set with small diamonds. This ring bears the following markings: Eagle-head hallmark on the outside of the band "PARIS 750" marking on the inside of the band N3346 : This is the unique serial number specific to this piece. These four digits serve as its identification number. See the photos Using this code, the Official Mauboussin Boutique will
