Description

Light and elegant, these antique drop earrings are distinguished by their refined design and delicate workmanship. They are Bourbon-style earrings dating from the second half of the 19th century. Each earring features an oval upper section, embellished at the centre with a floral motif crafted in gold of different tones. This upper element surmounts a convex drop-shaped pendant, terminating in a circular ring finely engraved with geometric motifs. The combination of different gold tones, together with the finely engraved decoration, gives the earrings a discreet and sophisticated appearance, characteristic of jewellery from the period. Period: 1840-1870 Metal: 18 kt gold ear wires, stamped "750" within a lozenge; 9 kt gold pendants, tested Total length: 45 mm Pendant length: 40
