Description

Pair of Chinese side tables in carved wood with mother-of-pearl inlays - 20th century A beautiful pair of Chinese side tables or end tables, crafted from exotic wood with a lovely warm patina. The square tops, with their slightly undulating edges, feature an elegant mother-of-pearl inlay design. In the center of each top is an engraved mother-of-pearl floral composition, surrounded by delicate geometric motifs and scrollwork arranged in the corners. The bands are carved with stylized floral motifs and rest on four curved legs topped with small scrolls. The richness of the decoration and the contrast between the wood and the iridescent sheen of the mother-of-pearl lend this pair a great deal of charm. These tables can be used as end tables, side tables, nightstands, or small side tables. They pair particularly well with
