Description

Yves Brayer (1907-1990) was one of the great French figurative painters of the 20th century and a member of the Academy of Fine Arts. Known for his Mediterranean landscapes, bullfighting scenes, and seascapes, he developed a luminous and colorful style, inspired by his travels in Spain, Provence, and the Camargue. His lithographs, meticulously executed on high-quality paper, are highly sought after by collectors.This original lithograph on Japanese paper, numbered 37/62 and hand-signed in the lower right corner, depicts a view from the Corniche in Marseille. The dramatic sky in shades of blue and pink, the colorful silhouettes, and the Mediterranean light lend this composition an atmosphere that is both poetic and vibrant.Technique: Original lithographMedium:
