

17th Century Painting Of Still Life And Watermelon

2 500 EUR

Period : 17th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Oil painting
Width : 85
Height : 71
Depth : 5

Description

Refined oil painting on canvas, housed in a contemporary carved wooden frame gilded with pure gold leaf. The painting depicts a still life, featuring a vase of flowers, numerous scattered flowers, a watermelon, a bunch of grapes, and three peaches in the center. There are minor defects on the frame, but the painting has been relined. This painting, whose masterful rendering of detail is evident, is of great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of class to any setting. 17th-century Ligurian manufacturing. Dimensions: H x W x D overall 71 x 85 x 5cm; H x W work only 57 x 72cm

Dealer

Galleria Antiquaria Chiavacci
Antique shop in the historic center of Florence
Tel : (+39) 0552398696
Mobile : (+39) 3405871910

Via della spada 58R
Firenze 50123