Description

A very beautiful pair of decorative plaques in repoussé and silver-plated copper, dating from the 19th century, depicting a finely chiseled allegorical scene. Exceptional attention to detail. The relief work features a lively composition, rich in details of drapery and plant motifs, enhanced by an original patina. The piece is set in a simple oak frame, which highlights the decorative character and intimate scale of the object. An ideal piece for a decorative arts collection or for a refined wall display.
