Description

A beautiful regional sideboard made of solid oak, featuring two doors and two drawers on the front. The front displays rich, Louis XV-inspired carved decoration, with heavily scalloped panels, shell motifs, and scrollwork. Beautiful, sculpted, and intricately shaped lower crossbar. The two drawers retain their original hardware, as well as their original locks and keys, which are fully functional. Long iron pins on the doors. Traditional antique construction, with a back made of wide wooden panels. A piece with character, displaying a beautiful patina and overall condition consistent with its age. Period: late 18th century. Probable origin: Northern France / Picardy. Delivery within mainland France: EUR180. Contact us for more information.
