Description

An important pair of large wall sconces attributed to Hans Kögl, made of gilded and silver-plated metal. The particularly spectacular design consists of long, flowing branches adorned with abundant foliage in gilded metal and clusters of flowers in silver-plated metal. The naturalistic, highly sculptural composition is characteristic of Hans Kögl's floral creations. These wall sconces feature exceptional proportions and a remarkable decorative presence, with an elegant contrast between the gilded foliage and the silver-plated flowers. Period: circa 1960-1970 Height: 80 cm Width: 130 cm
