Description

An elegant pair of two-light wall sconces, crafted from gilded metal and embellished with numerous faceted glass and crystal elements. The highly decorative structure features intertwined elements, branches with leaves, and large flowers composed of crystal petals, complemented by pendants and rosettes. The style and decorative aesthetic are reminiscent of the famous French designs by Maison Baguès from the mid-20th century. France, circa 1950-60. Height: 53 cm; Maximum width: 30 cm. In good overall condition, with normal signs of age and slight wear to the gilding. A third wall sconce of the same model is available, which can be purchased separately or as an addition to the pair. For more information or additional photos, please do not hesitate to contact us. Shipping available worldwide.
