Description

Terracotta wall decoration depicting a fisherman, created by Kany. Ceramic piece featuring characteristic bright colors and vibrant glazes. A bearded fisherman wearing iconic maritime work attire, consisting of a bright orange raincoat, yellow rain pants, tall black boots, and a green sou'wester. He holds a large, freshly caught green fish in his right hand and has a fishing rod resting on his left shoulder. Signed "Kany" on the back, this piece is the work of a French artist from the middle of the last century, known for his highly textured and colorful wall plaques and regional figurines. 43 cm high, 18 cm wide, and 3.5 cm deep.
