Description

18th-century Piedmontese Baroque cabinet crafted from fine walnut. The front features a pair of two-part paneled doors, embellished with high-relief volute panels, which lend the piece remarkable visual depth and timeless elegance. The side panels are each decorated with three panels, maintaining stylistic consistency with the rest of the piece. The double-shelf feet add stability and a touch of refinement to the overall design. The back panel has been replaced with fir, while the interior is lined with green fabric, creating an interesting color contrast and a sense of freshness. This cabinet is a significant example of the craftsmanship of its era and fits perfectly into classic and sophisticated interior settings.
