Description

A pair of Lombard Barocchetto-style nightstands from the early 1900s, featuring an elegant walnut and mahogany burl veneer with maple inlays. The "bombè" structure features both vertical and horizontal curves, typical of the period, which lend the pieces a sense of dynamism. The top surface, made of Macchia Vecchia marble, adds a touch of refinement and durability. The front of the nightstands features a single door that ends in a scalloped apron, harmonizing with the sides. Chiseled bronze elements, such as the handles and feet, complete the piece, highlighting the luxury and artisanal detail of these furnishings. Product Condition: The piece is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain
