Description

This Marina-style mahogany writing desk, from mid-20th-century England, represents a perfect blend of functionality and design. The tabletop is embellished with a green morocco leather insert, which adds elegance and practicality, making it ideal for writing and studying. The tabletop border, handles, trim, and decorative inlays are crafted from brass, adding a touch of sophistication and durability. The structure is supported by "X"-shaped legs. The brass crossbar and feet complete the look, highlighting the attention to detail. This writing desk is an ideal choice for those who wish to enrich their space with a high-quality piece of furniture that exudes timeless charm. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual
