Description

A Baroque walnut chest of drawers dating from the early 17th century, originating from Lombardy. This imposing piece features a front with four two-part drawers, embellished with molded panels in high relief that create a distinctive and striking visual effect. The curved legs and paneled sides lend further elegance, while the carved corbel feet add a touch of grandeur. The vents and handles are crafted from gilded bronze, elements that harmoniously contrast with the warmth of the walnut wood. The interiors are made of poplar, a lightweight yet durable wood that ensures functionality without compromising the structure. Restoration work has been performed on the top, preserving the piece's historical integrity. A refined example of Lombard Baroque craftsmanship, ideal for
