Description

Baroque walnut sideboard dating from the early 19th century, from France. This piece features an elegant design with three drawers beneath the top, the center one being smaller than the other two--perfect for storing small items. The finely crafted paneled doors are flanked by a central, gouged stanchion that adds a touch of elegance. The apron and fluted legs lend movement and dynamism to the piece, while the chiseled and gilded sheet metal vents provide a luxurious detail. Ideal for a classic setting, this sideboard is a fine example of the craftsmanship of its era. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as completely as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the
