Description

The iconic Atoll lamp by designer Vico Magistretti for Oluce. Winner of the prestigious Compass d'Or award in 1979, in recognition of its design and innovative ideas. This is the first edition of the original 1977 lamp. The lamp consists of a pencil-shaped base--that is, a cylinder topped with a cone--and a shade shaped like a perfect half-head. The half-base reflects the light downward. Made of lacquered metal, shown here in black. More specifically, this is a functional first edition in excellent condition.
