Description

An elegant bust depicting Aristotle, rendered in the classical style: the bearded philosopher wearing a laurel wreath. The name "ARISTO" is inscribed in black letters on the base. Carved from light-colored marble with subtle golden hues, this bust follows in the tradition of Grand Tour souvenirs, created in Italy during the 19th century based on models from antiquity and the Renaissance. A beautiful decorative piece, with a natural patina and slight signs of wear consistent with its age.
