Description

A set of miniature "Mid-Century Modern" style furniture from the Soviet Union. This is a very charming set of vintage wooden dollhouse furniture from the Soviet Union (USSR). The clean, geometric shapes of the armchairs and the kidney-shaped/triangular table reflect the characteristic "Mid-Century" modernist design "Mid-Century" style, which was also very popular at the time in the Soviet Union for toys and interior design. The two cubist armchairs feature a characteristic continuous side panel that forms both the armrest and the legs, with no visible screws or nails. The tabletop is composed of several thin layers of wood, and the projecting legs provide increased stability and a sleek look. Underneath the table is a factory stamp bearing the inscription "USSR," indicating that
