Large regional wardrobe made of solid oak, dating from the 18th century, in the Louis XV style. It opens with two large doors featuring molded panels carved with floral motifs and volutes. Beautiful, heavily molded cornice and a scalloped lower rail adorned with a fleur-de-lis. Traditional old-fashioned construction, with a back entirely made of assembled wooden planks. It retains its lock, its large original key, and its antique hardware. The lock and key are fully functional. The interior is fitted with a shelf and a hanging rod. Option for three interior shelves. Beautiful antique patina; the piece has a lot of character. A very beautiful regional wardrobe with substantial proportions, in good overall condition considering its age. Dimensions: Height: 240 cm; Width: 165 cm;
