Description

A lovely Louis XV-style armchair in solid walnut, from the Napoleon III period, mid-20th century. It rests on four curved legs, with the two rear legs resting on casters. The front crossbar of the frame is adorned with a daisy motif surrounded by foliage. The backrest, known as the "Queen" style, is decorated with a shell-shaped cartouche and floral and plant motifs. Our chair is presented in "white," meaning it is ready to be upholstered. It was first completely restored by a cabinetmaker, who made all necessary reinforcements (custom-made brackets) to ensure its strength and stability. Our chair was then completely reupholstered by the upholsterer using traditional methods (webbing, springs, horsehair), ensuring a high level of comfort. Please note that there are some stains on the white fabric;
