Pair Of Maligano Jasper, Eggs, And A Sphere

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

This set includes an egg and a sphere made of Maligano Jasper, two polished pieces that highlight the extraordinary natural patterns of this unique variety of jasper. This particular type of jasper takes its name from the small, isolated village of Maligano, located on the island of Sulawesi, and is renowned for its complex veining and layering, which, on the polished surface, take on the appearance of abstract landscapes: hills, canyons, clouds, sunsets, and imaginary maps seem to emerge spontaneously from the stone. The hues range from cream and beige to pink, orange, red, gray, and brown, creating contrasts that make each piece completely unique.
