Description

A pair of Louis XVI-style nightstands made of mahogany and mahogany veneer; one features three drawers on the front, while the other has one drawer and a niche. The handles are drop rings, and the drawer fronts are adorned with brass moldings. The tops are made of white marble with a recessed edge. The front legs are rounded and fluted, while the back legs are fluted. The marble tops follow the rounded contours of the front legs. The four fluted legs end in a spade-shaped base. These nightstands are in good condition and have been refinished.
