Description

Refined console table in carved wood, finely gilded with gold leaf, with a carved wooden top painted in tempera lean in shades of brown, yellow, and black. The console table has a compact and elegant shape, embellished with delicate carvings of phytomorphic and geometric scrolls, typical of the Louis XV style. At the base, the scrolls join at the center, forming a shell. The top is also textured and painted in a faux marble look, reminiscent of yellow Siena marble, with ochre-brown tones and black veining, lending further refinement to the overall effect. This console table exudes great taste and sophistication, capable of adding a touch of class and antiquity to any space. Tuscan manufacture, from the Louis XV period, around the mid-18th century. Measurements: H x W x D 90 x
