Description

Gilded bronze candelabrum based on a design by Jean-Demosthène Dugourc and François Remond. Late 19th century, Louis XVI style. The central shaft, adorned with caryatids and bearded heads, is surmounted by three light arms featuring hunting-themed scrollwork decorated with lion heads and leaf-motif volutes. The finely chiseled pedestal, featuring acanthus leaves, rests on a white marble base. High-quality chiseling and gilding. The candelabra has been fully electrified in our workshop.
