Description

A superb and rare, very large ceramic bowl with medallions and scrollwork by Emile Gallé. Here is an impressive antique ceramic piece, finely decorated with color motifs reminiscent of the Japanese-style pieces that were very much in vogue at the time. The ovoid bowl rests on four feet and is accentuated by two handles and two central medallion-shaped panels--one featuring a bird on a branch and the other a landscape with a castle. Numerous scrolls in relief, flowers, and even insects complete this rich decoration. Impressive size: 55 cm long, 32. (cm wide, and 17 cm high. Signed in red on the underside of the base: "E. Gallé Nancy." Very good condition, with minor imperfections that do not affect its appearance. Circa 1880-1890. An exceptional piece of Gallé ceramics, rare in this
