work remains clearly legible. The frame would also require restoration but remains in satisfactory condition. Restoration of both the artwork and the frame would have been entirely feasible but was not carried out in order to preserve the artwork and frame in their strictly original condition. Galerie Le Mont des Arts only intervenes in very exceptional cases on works requiring restoration, in order to ensure complete transparency regarding the piece offered to its future clients, who are always keen to have their usual restorers work on the pieces. A video of the artwork can be sent upon request. Provenance: Former private collection, Basel, Switzerland. Galerie Le Mont des Arts, Dommartemont, France, by way of a chain of ownership. A summary estimate of the costs associated with packing the piece in a museum-grade wooden crate and shipping it via a professional carrier will be provided upon request. Worldwide delivery.
