

Large Portrait Of A Young Boy, Bust-length, Early 19th Century Or Even Earlier. France.

700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 42 cas à vue, 54 cas avec le cadre

Height : 52 cas à vue, 65 cas avec le cadre.

Description

A very lovely portrait of a small, handsome boy, dressed quite luxuriously. He has a beautiful face, his head turned to the right, with a lively, bright gaze. He wears a large lace collar and matching cuffs, in the style of the 17th century. A cross is held in place by a blue ribbon around his neck, and a large gold chain may be holding a medal or decoration. The right hand is painted with great finesse, while the left hand, holding a sort of handkerchief, is only roughly sketched. The canvas is original, as is the frame, which appears to be truly antique. Beautiful frame made of wood gilded with gold leaf, with some flaking of the gilding. Early 19th century, or older. France.

Dealer

La Curieuse

Dessins anciens, curiosités, mobilier haute époque

Mobile : 0680646110

Paris 75004