

U.s. M1 Helmet. Wwii. Utah Beach. D-day. 1944

560 EUR

Signature : U.S M1 Mc Cord 1942

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Description

U.S. Helmet M1 WW2 (May 1942).Shell manufactured by Mc Cord. (McCord RadiatorManufacturing Company. Detroit. Michigan).Lot numberon the front rim: 174A ("Ghost Treaders Museum":manufactured in May 1942).Weldon the front band.Fixed stainless steel chin strap buckle: the right buckle is missing.Color:Matte olive drab granulate.No chin strap.Signs of wear on the rim and shell. Linerwith double chin strap.Manufacturer: Westinghouse Electric Company. Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (1942-1945).On the paratrooper chin strap: U.S.On a strap of the "Riddel" suspension system, the letter "P"Minor traces of oxidation. Provenance: BA177 (Auxerre Air Base) Occupied by the Luftwaffe and, upon liberation, by the 101st Airborne Division (Air

Dealer

Antiquités de la Cathédrale

Objets de curiosité, de collection, de vitrine et tableaux

Tel : 0667172702

9 Place saint Etienne

Auxerre 89000

Assault: "Screaming Eagle"), which participated in D-Day at Utah Beach in 1944