Description

A large, impressive sculpture depicting a bird of prey perched on a branch with leaves and berries, crafted in polychrome glazed ceramic by the renowned Italian ceramic sculptor Guido Cacciapuoti (first half of the 20th century).

The piece is distinguished by the high quality of the plumage modeling and the realistic rendering of the gaze--elements typical of the artist's naturalist repertoire. Artist's signature incised on the ceramic base.

Period: 1930s/1940s

Good overall condition. Note a small chip on the tip of the beak (visible in the detailed photos).

Height 62 cm, length 26 cm, width 27 cm.
