Elegant, richly carved and gilded wooden wall mirror, in the Louis XV style, dating from the 20th century. The frame features particularly rich rocaille decoration, composed of volutes, foliage, shells, and floral motifs. The upper section is crowned by a large openwork pediment, finely carved and adorned with foliage and rocaille motifs. The gilding, with its warm tones, beautifully highlights the relief of the carving and gives this mirror a particularly decorative presence.
