Description

A vintage table from the 1950s featuring a refined and functional design. The sturdy frame is made of solid beech wood, ensuring stability and durability. The tabletop is made of veneered wood with exotic wood inlays that create a sophisticated checkerboard pattern, giving the table a distinctive and refined look. The built-in extensions allow you to expand the surface area, making it ideal for seating more people. The table has been completely restored in our workshop, bringing it back to optimal condition while preserving its original charm. Perfect for spaces that call for a touch of retro elegance.
