Description

An English-made sideboard from the 1960s crafted from teak wood, carefully restored in our workshops to restore it to its original splendor. This piece, with its clean lines and solid construction, features a design typical of the period, characterized by simple, functional forms. The warm grain of the teak lends elegance and versatility, making it suitable for a variety of home settings. The artisanal craftsmanship is evident in the details of the handles and finishes, enhancing both its aesthetic appeal and functionality. Thanks to professional restoration, this sideboard blends history with modernity, serving as an authentic testament to mid-20th-century British design. MOMOMO0295933
