

Officer's Sword From The école Des Mines De Saint-étienne - Second Empire - 19th Century

620 EUR

Signature : Couleaux & Cie KLINGENTHAL

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 93 cm -- sf: 91,5 cm -- lame: 77 cm

Width : lame au talon: 1,5 cm

Description

Officer's sword from the École des Mines de Saint-Étienne, France, founded on August 2, 1816, by royal decree of Louis XVIII. Gilded bronze hilt. Highly ornate pommel featuring ovals embroidered with pearls on a sandblasted background. Joint arch decorated with coiled laurel branches, with a central ring surrounded by acanthus leaves. Crossguard ending in a bunch of grapes. Mother-of-pearl trigger guard with two lateral and vertical grooves. Openwork guard, without counterguard, bordered with acanthus leaves, bearing a central escutcheon with a hammer and miner's pick on a sandblasted background and resting on four flags, flanked by a laurel branch on the left and an oak branch on the right. Triangular blade etched in the upper third with a floral design and bearing the

Dealer

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnique, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

COULEAU & CIE KLINGENTHAL mark on the heel. Scarlet lanyard included. Black leather scabbard with a center seam and two brass fittings. Chape with chiseled decoration at the bottom and an oval chape button bordered with pearls on a sandblasted background. Long pommel decorated with two lateral lines. Length: 93 cm Length without pommel: 91.5 cm Blade length: 77 cm Blade width at the heel: 1.5 cm In very good condition and well-preserved, with its original patina; see the photos for details. Free shipping within France. International shipping rates available upon request, depending on the destination country. Browse my other items in the gallery and our collection:
<https://www.IrisAntik.com>