Henri PERSON (1876-1926) -- Landscape by the Stream, 1899 Oil on canvas, signed "H. Person" lower right, dated 1899. Dimensions: 40.5 × 65 cm. A charming pastoral landscape depicting a stream flowing through lush countryside, featuring a small structure and a rowboat on the bank. The composition is distinguished by a soft, slightly misty atmosphere; a palette of greens, ochres, and blue-greys; and a fluid, luminous brushwork characteristic of late 19th-century landscapes. The work is consistent with the oeuvre of Henri Person (1876-1926), a French painter best known for his landscapes and maritime scenes. Signed oil-on-canvas works by Person titled *Paysage* (Landscape) and *Paysage au pont* (Landscape with Bridge) have frequently appeared at public auction. Period:
