Description

A rare and elegant 18th-century Venetian carved and gilded wood stool. Featuring exceptional carving quality, it displays a serpentine seat rail adorned with openwork shells, foliage, and rocaille scrolls. Its four cabriole legs, carved with vegetal motifs, lend it the theatrical flair highly characteristic of Venetian art. The seat, upholstered in floral silk, is accented with elegant gimp trim. 18th-century Venetian gilded wood stool, fine original gilding.
