Description

Set of 40 antique Art Nouveau buttons in gilded brass, featuring a particularly elegant and refined design. Each button features a magnificent openwork floral design in relief, with a stylized flower at the center, its petals unfolding amid lush foliage and plant-inspired scrolls. The design is typical of the Art Nouveau / Belle Époque period, with its organic forms, supple curves, and abundant nature-inspired decoration. The brasswork is remarkable: the relief, openwork, fine details, and delicate modeling give these buttons a striking presence and character. A very lovely lot of antique haberdashery that will appeal to collectors as well as enthusiasts of antique textiles, historical costumes, or decorative design. 40 buttons of the same design, making this a particularly interesting set for a restoration or
